

Scripps Cancer Center's 28th Annual Conference

Clinical Hematology & Oncology

Saturday, February 16 -
Tuesday, February 19, 2008

OMNI HOTEL
SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

Dear Colleague

Scripps Cancer Center's 28th Annual Conference: Clinical Hematology and Oncology 2008 is designed for hematologists, oncologists, surgeons, radiation oncologists, internists, and others desiring an update in these specialty areas. The program focuses on selected hematologic subjects the first day, hematologic malignancies the second day, new developments in oncology with a focus on issues of current interest the third day and lung cancer the final day. This year, we are also pleased to offer a dinner symposium discussing geriatric oncology. Afternoon workshop sessions will be offered focusing on topics in hematology and coagulation. All presenters will discuss their approaches to challenging but common clinical situations and there will be ample time for participant interaction.

The primary objective of this course is to bring together clinicians and leading experts in diverse areas of hematology and oncology, affording them an intimate environment in which to discuss new clinical developments and significant advances.

We are honored to have two lectureships showcased at the meeting this year. Dr. Joan Schiller will present the Dr. Robert Memorial Longmire Lecture. Dr. Longmire was a valued member of Scripps Clinic and this lectureship has been established in his memory. The honoree of the prestigious 28th Annual Bernard L. Schwartz Lecture will be Dr. Sandra Horning. Dr. Horning will be speaking on large cell lymphomas..

A glance at the agenda will reveal we have been most fortunate to assemble an outstanding faculty for this meeting. We look forward to seeing many past participants again in 2008 and invite to San Diego those of you who have not previously had the opportunity to attend this excellent conference.

Michael P. Kosty, MD, FACP
Course Director

Educational Objectives

After participating in this course, the attendee should be able to:

- Describe the pathogenesis, diagnostic approaches and therapeutic modalities available for hematologic disorders discussed;
- Summarize the changing approaches to hematologic malignancies including innovations in diagnosis and treatment;
- Recognize and list new therapeutic options for the treatment of a number of common cancers;
- Evaluate the evolving approaches to lung cancer; and
- Apply practical experience in the clinical situations discussed in the workshop sessions.

Accreditation

Scripps Clinic is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Scripps Clinic designates this educational activity for a maximum number of 26.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of the participation in the activity.

Saturday 7.5 credits (includes workshops)
Sunday 7.5 credits (includes workshops)
Monday 6.75 credits (includes general session and dinner symposium)
Tuesday 4.5

Documentation of awarded credit is provided for registered attendees in exchange for completed activity evaluation. Certificates of attendance are available, upon request, at the end of the course.

Disclosure

It is Scripps Clinic policy to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all sponsored educational programs. Course Directors, planning committees, faculty and all others who are in a position to control the content of any educational activity sponsored by Scripps Clinic are required to disclose any real or apparent conflicts of interest related to the subject matter of the educational activity.

Educational Grants

This course is supported, in part, by educational grants from industry, in accordance with ACCME Standards. At the time of printing, a complete listing of commercial supporters was not available. Appropriate acknowledgement will be given to all supporters at the time of the educational activity.

Cultural and Linguistic Competency

This activity is in compliance with California Assembly Bill 1195 which requires that all CME activities comprising a patient care element include curriculum addressing the topic of cultural and linguistic competency. The intent of this bill is to ensure that health care professionals are able to meet the cultural and linguistic concerns of a diverse patient population through effective and appropriate professional development. Cultural and linguistic competency was incorporated into the planning of this activity.
