

Scripps Cancer Center's
30th Annual Conference

Clinical Hematology & Oncology

Saturday, February 13 - Tuesday, February 16, 2010

Omni Hotel, San Diego, California

Course Information

Join us for Scripps Cancer Center's 30th Annual Conference: Clinical Hematology & Oncology 2010!

Conference Highlights:

- Comprehensive presentations of the latest advances in cancer diagnosis and treatment with a strong patient care focus
- One of the few educational conferences addressing non-malignant hematology
- Renowned faculty representing the country's leading institutions chosen for their expertise as well as teaching skills
- Case-based clinically-focused workshops examining practical approaches to various controversies in therapies discussed in a highly dynamic, small-group setting
- Audience Response System used for instant feedback and interactive learning
- Multiple networking and one-on-one discussion opportunities
- Free DVD containing synchronized audio and final presentations sent to all attendees 4-6 weeks after the conference.

Target Audience:

- Hematologists/Oncologists
- Medical Oncologists
- Surgeons
- Radiation Oncologists
- Internists
- and others desiring an update in these specialty areas.

Educational Objectives

After participating in this course, the attendee should be able to:

- Describe the clinical and molecular facets of pathogenesis, diagnostic approaches and therapeutic modalities available for various hematologic disorders;
- Select and apply the changing approaches to hematologic malignancies, particularly as they relate to evidence-based standards of care, including innovations in diagnosis and treatment;
- Choose new therapeutic options for the treatment of a number of common malignancies; understanding appropriate indications and contraindications to these therapeutic approaches;
- Integrate the evolving approaches to lung cancer from both a diagnostic, prognostic and therapeutic perspective; and
- Apply practical expertise gained from the clinical situations discussed in the workshop sessions with an emphasis on data-based approaches to patients with common but serious hematologic conditions.

Accreditation

Physicians: Scripps Health is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Scripps Health designates this educational activity for a maximum number of 27 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nurses: The California State Board of Registered Nurses (BRN) accepts AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™] as meeting continuing education requirements for license renewal. Most state Boards of Registered Nurses accept AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™] as meeting continuing education requirements for license renewal. Nurses should check with their state board regarding use of CME credit.

Pharmacists: This conference meets CE Standards for Pharmacists by the California State Board of Pharmacy.

Physician Assistants: The American Association of Physician Assistants accepts Category 1 credit from AMA Category 1 CME organizations accredited by ACCME.

Credit Breakdown:

Saturday	7.5 credits (includes workshops)
Sunday	7.5 credits (includes workshops)
Monday	8.25 credits (includes evening symposium)
Tuesday	3.75 credits

Documentation of awarded credit is provided for registered attendees in exchange for completed activity evaluation. Certificates of attendance are available, upon request, at the end of the course.

Disclosure

Scripps Health is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) and in accordance with the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support, course directors, planning committees, faculty and all others in control of the educational content of the CME activity must disclose all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest that they or their spouse/partner may have had within the past 12 months. If an individual refuses to disclose relevant financial relationships, they will be disqualified from being a part of the planning and implementation of this CME activity. Employees of a commercial interest with business lines or products relating to the content of the CME activity will not participate in the planning or any accredited portion of the conference.

Disclosure will be made to all participants at the conference location, prior to the educational activity commencement.

Educational Grants

This course is supported, in part, by educational grants from industry, in accordance with ACCME Standards. At the time of printing, a complete listing of commercial supporters was not available. Appropriate acknowledgement will be given to all supporters at the time of the educational activity.

Cultural and Linguistic Competency

This activity is in compliance with California Assembly Bill 1195 which requires that all CME activities comprising a patient care element include curriculum addressing the topic of cultural and linguistic competency. The intent of this bill is to ensure that health care professionals are able to meet the cultural and linguistic concerns of a diverse patient population through effective and appropriate professional development. Cultural and linguistic competency was incorporated into the planning of this activity.

Dear Colleague,

Scripps Cancer Center's 30th Annual Conference: Clinical Hematology and Oncology 2010 is designed for hematologists, oncologists, surgeons, radiation oncologists, internists, and others desiring an update in these specialty areas. The program focuses on selected hematologic subjects the first day, hematologic malignancies the second day, new developments in oncology with a focus on issues of current interest the third day and lung cancer the final day. This year, we are also pleased to offer a symposium discussing breast cancer. Afternoon workshop sessions will be offered focusing on topics in hematology and coagulation. All presenters will discuss their approaches to challenging but common clinical situations and there will be ample time for participant interaction.

The primary objective of this course is to bring together clinicians and leading experts in diverse areas of hematology and oncology, affording them an intimate environment in which to discuss new clinical developments and significant advances.

A glance at the agenda will reveal we have been most fortunate to assemble an outstanding faculty for this meeting. We look forward to seeing many past participants again in 2010 and invite to San Diego those of you who have not previously had the opportunity to attend this excellent conference.

Michael P. Kosty, M.D., FACP, Course Director
